

KSCPA Chair Yearbook and History

1932-33
W. T. Newman
Deceased

1933-34
W. H. Moberly
Deceased

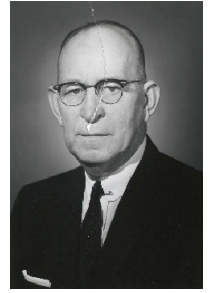

1934-35
Harley Gifford
Deceased

1936-37
Irvin Morgan
Deceased

1937-38
Cliff Stevenson
Deceased

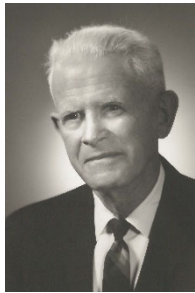

1938-39
M.J. Kennedy
Deceased

1932. Kansas Society of CPAs was founded on October 17 at the Hotel Jayhawk in Topeka.

1936. KSCPA's financial statement reflected a balance of $178.

1939-40
Frederick Kubik
Deceased

1940-41
Joseph Acre
Deceased

1941-42
Roy Simmons
Deceased

1942-43
S.W. Sinderson
Deceased

1943-44
Ivan M. West
Deceased

1944-45
C.L. Coe
Deceased

1941. The Society voted to adopt the AICPA's "Rules of Professional Conduct."

1944. Membership reached 79, including 19 who were serving in the Armed Forces.

1945-46
Hugh Hartley
Deceased

1946-47
C.L. Paxson
Deceased

1947-48
John Bonicamp
Deceased

1948-49
Rex Jennings
Deceased

1949-50
W.F. Hardesty
Deceased

1950-51
Ben F. Kubik
Deceased

1951. Kansas legislature created the State Board of Accountancy.

1951-52
Harry Faris
Deceased

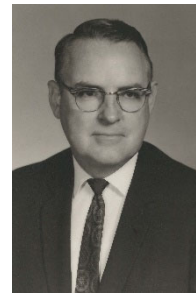

1952-53
J.C. Koelling
Deceased

1953-54
Homer J. Henning
Deceased

1954-55
Charles Rossdutcher
Deceased

1955-56
W. A. Richel
Deceased

1956-57
Emmett D. True
Deceased

1952. The Society hires its first Executive Director, Keith Weltmer, a KU accounting professor.

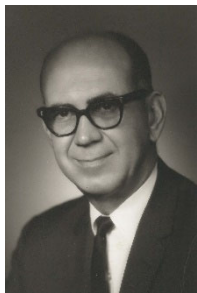

1953. The Society forms a speaker's bureau of CPA lecturers for local civic and professional organizations.

1964. John D. Logsdon, CPA hired as Executive Director.

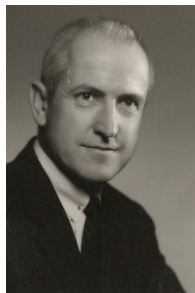

1968. Arnold R. Jones become Executive Director.

1957-58
Edward Shea
Deceased

1958-59
Veron Nelson
Deceased

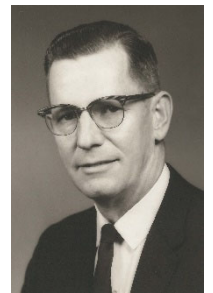

1959-60
George W. Sinderson
Deceased

1960-61
Glen Smith
Deceased

1961-62
Don F. Gresser
Deceased

1962-63
D. C. Unrau
Deceased

1963-64
George W. Batz
Deceased

1964-65
Robert Cory
Deceased

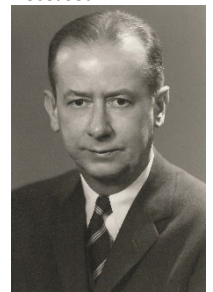

1965-66
Ralph Reitz
Deceased

1966-67
Kenneth K. Haury
Deceased

1967-68
David H. Tripp
Deceased

1968-69
Robert S. Mueller
Deceased

1969-70
Mike F. Taylor
Deceased

1970-71
Jack B. Chism, Sr
Deceased

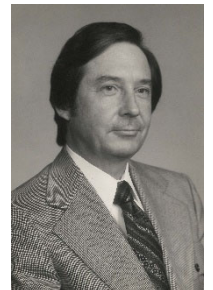

1971-72
John W. Poos
Deceased

1972-73
NE. Yadon
Deceased

1973-74
J.F. Kubik
Deceased

1974-75
Louis R. Regier
Deceased

1969. KSCPA hires the first full-time director - John J. Killian.

1970. Legislation changing the education and experience requirement for CPAs passes.

1971. KSCPA membership reaches 650. AICPA reports about 120,000 CPAs in the United States.

1973. Continuing Professional Education (CPE) becomes a requirement for permit renewal in Kansas starting with July 1, 1975, permit renewals.

1975-76
Joseph G. Trindle
Deceased

1976-77
Clayton C. McMurray
Deceased

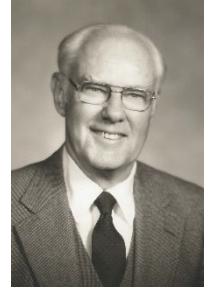

1977-78
Jack E. Sutton
Deceased

1978-79
Alvin M. Marcus
Deceased

1979-80
Marvin W. Maydew
Deceased

1980-81
Jay C. Westervelt
Deceased

1977. T.C. Anderson becomes Executive Director.

KSCPA Membership reaches 1,000.

KSCPA forms a committee to determine better ways to serve members working in business and industry.

1978. Political Action Committee formed.

KSCPA holds Member Forum on AICPA proposal to establish Compilation and Review of financial statements.

1979. Wichita agency selected to lead KSCPA into advertising.

KSCPA offered an after-tax season Caribbean Cruise. The Cruise ship burned a week before departure, and group travel was a thing of the past.

KSCPA leaders make their first trip to Washington, DC, to meet with the Kansas Congressional delegation members.

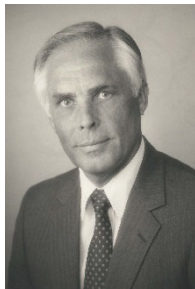

1980. CPE hours are now allowed to be carried forward to the next permit renewal.

CPA firms may conduct audits of federal grants awarded to state agencies previously performed by the Legislative Division of Post Audit.

1980-81. Society budget hits $200,000, and membership surpasses 1,300.

1981-82
Randall P. Anderson
Deceased

1982-83
Marvin R. Klein

1983-84
J. H. Hay

1984-85
Michael V. McKay
Deceased

1985-86
James F. Adams
Deceased

1986-87
Charles L.
Clinkenbeard
Deceased

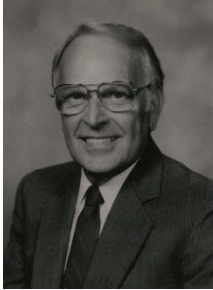

1981. Legislature passes Client/CPA privileged communications.

1982. Society moves offices to 400 Croix, and membership reaches 1,500.

1983. Society budget now stands at $560,000.

1984. KSCPA ask the State Board of Accountancy to repeal the ban on direct uninvited solicitation. The ban was repealed in 1986.

1986. Privity of contract legislation becomes law allowing individuals having a direct contractual relationship with a CPA to recover for negligence.

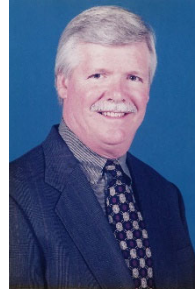

1987-88
Max V. Snodgrass
Deceased

1988-89
Herbert E. Bevan, Jr

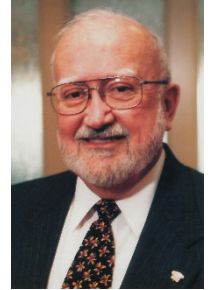

1989-90
Dale L. Birney
Deceased

1990-91
Thomas J. Mullane

1991-92
Robert A. Pfeifer

1992-93
John F. Sanders
Deceased

1989. CPAs are allowed to incorporate under the General Corporation Act.

Society membership hits 2,100, and 89-90 KSCPA budget reaches $852,000.

AICPA quality review program administered by KSCPA.

1990. The policy to support the 150-hour education requirement to sit for the CPA examination is adopted.

Legislation preventing the discovery of quality review reports in negligence actions brought against CPAs becomes law.

Kansans For Tax-Free Services focusing on professional fees sales tax formed and operated out of the KSCPA office.

1992. KSCPA successfully fights an attempt to repeal the Client/CPA privilege communications statute.

1993. Quality review for Kansas permit renewal is signed into law.

Legislation establishing GAAP and GAAS as the standards for determining CPA's liability in providing professional services to financial institutions becomes law.

1993-94
Phillip R. Dick
Deceased

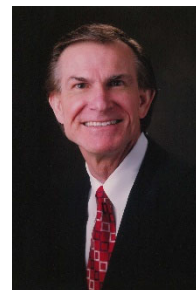

1994-95
Gary L. Poore
Deceased

1995-96
Marian S. George
Deceased

1996-97
Jere Noe

1997-98
Timothy E.
Gottschalk

1998-99
Kurtis G. Siemers

1994. Limited Liability Partnership Act passes. CPAs can now practice as LLPs.

1995. Small Claims Court created where CPAs can represent clients. CPAs can serve on the Board.

1996. KSCPA Directors vote to advance the concept of non-CPA ownership in Kansas CPA firms. Adopted in 2000.

1997. KSCPA website debuts.

1998. Kansas CPE law changed from 40 hours a year to 80 hours during the two-year renewal of the permit to practice.

1999-2000
James T. Clark

2000-01
DeAnn A. Hill

2001-02
Leon C. Logan

2002-03
Kathryn J. Mitchell

2003-04
Dan S. Deines

2004-05
Robert R. Crawford

1999. KSCPA joins a coalition seeking legislation to address potential litigation due to technology malfunctions.

2001. KSCPA moves offices to 1080 Wanamaker in Topeka.

Society revenues exceed $1 million for the first time.

2003. KSCPA expenses exceed $1million for the first time.

2004. KSCPA membership stands at 2,601.

2005-06
Phillip C. Watson

2006-07
Kyle J. Hawk

2007-08
Gary A. Schlappe

2008-09
L. Gary Boomer

2009-10
Gary C. Allerheiligen

2010-11
John H. Bruckner

2005. T.C. Anderson retires after 28 years of service to the KSCPA as its Executive Director. Tony A Scott, CPA replaces T.C. Anderson as Executive Director.

2008. KSCPA moves into new space at 9th and Kansas.

2009. Mary MacBain is hired as the Executive Director.

2008-09 KSCPA budget reaches $1.10 million of expenses.

The first electronic newsletter, "Skyscapes," is published. Kansas adopts the practice of mobility.

Bylaws are changed to enhance affiliate membership and to add the student membership program.

First "20 up to 40" leadership class graduates.

2010. First, 'Women to Watch' are recognized.

2011-12
Robert J. Schuster

2012-13
M. Aron Dunn

2013-14
Melinda A. Hitz

2014-15
Michelle Schneider

2015-16
Matthew R. List

2016-17
James K. Boomer

2011. A new KSCPA website is launched with full integration to the membership database.

2012. CPAs are in demand despite a high unemployment rate.

Five KSCPA members were appointed to a task force to make recommendations to improve school efficiency.

2013. KSCPA presented a $300,000 "TC and Trella Anderson and James T. and Mary Ann Clark Doctoral Scholar" endowment to the University of Kansas.

2014. KSCPA Video casting of major conferences and events.

Seminars were held throughout the state on the Affordable Care Act provisions. The KSCPA hosted the AICPA's regional Accounting Scholars Leadership Workshop.

2015. KSCPA has two members serving as 'an at large member' and one member on the AICPA Board of Directors.

KSCPA Annual meeting becomes 'Member Value Day.'

2016. Definition of attest and ability to start taking CPA exam 60 days before earning 150 hours legislation completed.

Mary MacBain retires as President/CEO.

Natasha Schamberger is hired as President/CEO.

2017-18
Chad M. Allen

2018-19
Jay D. Langley

2019-20
Damon Ward

2020-21
Christina Ricke

2021-22
Amber Goering

2022-23
Joseph Ronnebaum

2017. Inaugural Private College Consortium and member online community, Exchange, is launched.

2018. First statewide chapter footgolf competition and the Ignite blog launches.

Prompted appeal bond legislation giving CPAs access to the appeal system.

2019. First Accounting Career Kick-Start Program to attract and develop the talent pipeline held.

The renowned “20 up to 40” leadership program is rebranded as Lead to the Future (L2F).

2020. KSCPA reacts to the global pandemic by providing timely COVID resources, seamlessly transitioning to virtual CPE offerings, and successfully advocating for accounting services to be deemed essential.

KSCPA members serve as an informational resource to legislators on the potential impact of proposed tax legislation.

2021. KSCPA advocates for existing CPA licensing requirements to remain intact for Kansas.

KSCPA launches a new mobile responsive website with enhanced personalization, the Remote Work Toolkit, Knowledge Hub, and the Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Resource Center.

Unveils “Become a Business Athlete” video, showcasing the exciting future of accounting and the INSPIRE Business Camp to high school students. The video features college students and young professionals in Kansas.

2022. Danielle Hologram, CAE is hired as President/CEO.

KSCPA promoted legislation to address the SALT Parity issue.

Held the third INSPIRE Business Camp at the University of Kansas. Helping to inspire high school students to choose accounting and grow the pipeline.

Established Ethnically Diverse Student Scholarship to increase the representation of ethnically diverse CPA professionals.

2023. INSPIRE Business Camp hit record high attendance with 85 students.

Continued work with Kansas Legislators on SALT Parity Act.

KSCPA expanded from one peer group to eight peer groups.

2023-24
Norm Hope